

AGTA Spectrum Award™-Winning Palladium Jewelry Shines on the Red Carpet

Palladium Alliance International provided an opportunity for designers' work, including AGTA Spectrum Award™ winners and entrants, to be featured at the Hollywood Style Awards. Hosted by style expert George Kotsiopoulos who wore palladium ruby and diamond cuff links, which he raved were the perfect accent to his vintage velvet suit, the 2011 Hollywood Style Awards celebrated this year's trendsetters in fashion, honoring celebrities, influencers and the style elite who have led the way in the world of fashion. Held at Smashbox Studios, on Sunday, November 13th, the evening brought together the top creative talent in the industry with the most recognized celebrity leaders of fashion for an exclusive red carpet event to celebrate the essence of Hollywood style and jewelry made of palladium took center stage.

Honorees recognized at the 2011 Hollywood Style Awards Gala include: Elizabeth Stewart for "Stylist of the Year" presented by Kristin Davis and both women choose palladium pieces to accent their attire. Elizabeth chose a pair of AGTA Spectrum Award™-winning earrings by Adorn Gallery featuring Quartz and Mother of Pearl accented with diamonds and detachable mirror-cut Amethyst drops, while Kristin choose a pair of classic palladium and diamond oval hoops by Zeghani. Molly Stern was awarded "Make-Up Artist of the Year" presented by Mandy Moore, who despite a 102 temperature, rocked a pair of Andrew Meyer contemporary palladium pave diamond earrings. Mara Roszak won "Hair Stylist of the Year" presented by Zoe Saldana; Tracey Cunningham received "Colorist of the Year" honors presented by Palladium Alliance

Kristin Davis and Elizabeth Stewart

Spokeswoman, Rose McGowan. Arianne Phillips received "Costume Designer of the Year" presented by Andrea Riseborough; Kylie & Kendall Jenner were recognized with the "Stylish Sisters" award presented by Khloe Kardashian. DECADES Boutique was named "Hollywood Boutique of the Year" and owners Cameron Silver and Christos Garkinos both wore palladium rings; Silver in AGTA Spectrum Award™ -winning palladium "Zultan" ring by EvelynH. Jewelry and Christos chose a custom-made palladium and colored diamond ring by Sholdt. Decades award was presented by Selma Blair who chose two pearl and diamond rings by designer Dennis deJonghe, one of which won an AGTA Spectrum Award™ for Best Use of Palladium in Bridal Jewelry, to accent her vintage attire. Chloe Moretz was named “One to Watch” presented by Jaime King, who rocked palladium diamond studs with vintage diamond jackets by Zeghani and a palladium and diamond disk ring by Sholdt; and Randall Slavin for “Photographer of the Year” presented by Eva Longoria.

Cameron Silver

Presented by PMC, the year’s event was sponsored by Smashbox Cosmetics, The Palazzo Las Vegas and Palladium Alliance International. Guests had the opportunity to indulge in a VIP Touch-Up Studio with Smashbox makeup artists. Additionally, they had a chance to experience a taste of Las Vegas in the heart of Hollywood, with The Palazzo Las Vegas, Azure, and Lagasse’s Stadium lounges; while Palladium Jewelry gave guests the opportunity to experience and be photographed in their luxury collection on the red carpet and at the event’s after party.

Selma Blair

For information on how to have your palladium designs showcased on the red carpet, contact Brooke Brinkman at bbrinkman@luxurypalladium.com.