

AGS MEMBERS: SAVE ON CONCLAVE WITH THE AGS LABORATORIES GIVEBACK RATE

If you are a member of the American Gem Society, and haven't seen the promotions regarding the AGS Laboratories Early-Bird Giveback Rate for Conclave registration, there is good news: AGS Laboratories is extending the original offer with a new Giveback Rate, now through March 6! This special rate continues to support the AGS and AGS Laboratories' mission of consumer protection through education.

This year also marks the 20th Anniversary of AGS Laboratories—join the celebration at Conclave!

FULL REGISTRATION:

$795 - February 1-March 6, 2016

(Savings of $200)

FIRST TIME ATTENDEE:

(Savings of $100)

The American Gem Society would like to thank AGTA for their continued sponsorship of the annual Titleholders Luncheon on April 14. The annual lunch recognizes members who have earned their American Gem Society credentials, and in doing so, have demonstrated their commitment to the Society's mission of ongoing education.

Save on Conclave while there is still time! Register now at AGS.org/Conclave2016, or call 866.805.6500.

If you are not a member of the American Gem Society, call their membership department today at the number above to learn how you can become one.
