

Maximize Your Exposure by Entering the 2016 Summer AGTA Spectrum Awards™!

The AGTA Spectrum Awards™ hosts an Editors' Day Event that brings in many industry editors, consumer fashion publication editors, lifestyle and fashion bloggers and social media ambassadors to the event location in New York City to see ALL of the Spectrum entries!

The editors, bloggers and social media ambassadors explore the room looking at every entry to discover the newest designs, see the upcoming trends and find product placement for future materials!

At the Editors' Day Event, each entry is accompanied by the designers' name, contact information and description of the piece, so your information is right at the fingertips of these important contacts!

What a great way to maximize your brand exposure! Everyone is a winner at the Editors' Day Event!
