Jewelers 24 Karat Club of Southern California Honors Industry Icons

Southern California, (October 17, 2017) — The Jewelers 24 Karat Club of Southern California held its 73rd Annual Dinner Dance and Gala, at 6:30pm on Saturday, October 14 at the Beverly Hills Hotel in Beverly Hills, CA. Some of the brightest stars in the jewelry industry were in attendance.

The Club recognized Avi Raz of A&Z Pearls and the Bhindi family of Bhindi Jewellers with the Excellence in Service Award. Douglas K. Hucker, CEO of the American Gem Trade Association received the Lifetime Achievement Award.

“Avi and the Bhindi family have made an incredible impact in our industry, and exemplify a high standard of professionalism, business ethics and a commitment to excellence, true to the 24 Karat Club’s mission,” said Karen Signorino, the Club’s President of the Board of Directors. “Doug’s commitment and dedication to our industry is impeccable. His contributions are innumerable, and we are so pleased to have recognized him.”

“I have been a member of the Jewelers 24 Karat Club of Southern California for many years and have always felt a sense of coming home when I attend the annual dinner dance. To be presented with such an award by the Club is, in itself, both extremely gratifying and humbling. To receive this award in the company of so many dear and longtime friends and colleagues was an experience that I will always remember,” said Hucker.

The 24 Karat Club of Southern California would like to acknowledge and thank their generous sponsors for the event: Rolex USA, American Gem Trade Association, GIA (Gemological Institute of America), Jewelers Mutual Insurance Group, JCK, Jewelers of America, Chatham, H2Events/Centurion, InfoSure, Harmon Group and Hessler Printing.
